

Candler's Distinguished Alumni Awards

Candler School of Theology annually recognizes alumni whose service to God, the church, and the community has been made with distinction. In 2007, the program began recognizing three persons who have brought distinction through their service in particular areas of ministry. The 2007 recipients are as follows:

Service to Community	Ginger Rogers Kaney 72T
Service to Church	Bill Self 71T
Service to Candler	Karl Stegall 79T

Previous recipients of this award and its predecessor, the Alumni Service Award, include

William S. Barnes 73B 76T	Jay Hodges 72T 91T
William Carroll 54T	Calvin R. Kimbrough Jr. 75T
Betty Clanton Castellani 83T	Nelia T. Kimbrough 74T
James W. Giddens Jr. 87T	Dow Kirkpatrick 40T
Gordon C. Goodgame 58T	Gordon G. Thompson Jr. 46T
F. Stuart Gulley 86T	K. Edward Tomlinson 69T
Susan T. Henry-Crowe 76T	Eugene M. Zimmerman 54T

Letters of nomination will be accepted for the 2008 awards through March 28, 2008. Supplemental information, including the resume of the nominee and letters of support, are encouraged. Nominations should include

1. Nominee's name, title, church or organization, and contact information
2. Contact information for individual making the nomination (name, title, address, telephone number and email)
3. The award for which the nominee should be considered (Service to Community, Service to Church, or Service to Candler)
4. Reason for nomination, describing nominee's merits for the award. including key activities, accomplishments, and history of employment
5. Biographical information, including nominee's relevant education, background, interests, past awards, and other recognitions

All nominations are confidential and will be held for two consecutive years. The Leadership Subcommittee of the Candler Alumni Council will meet in Spring 2008 to review all award nominations. Finalists will be submitted to the full membership of the Candler Alumni Council and to the dean for selection. The Distinguished Alumni Awards will be presented in October 2008 during the alumni luncheon to be held in conjunction with Candler's fall conference.

Nominations for fall 2008 must be submitted by March 28, 2008. Please send your nomination(s) to The Rev. Scott Keneda, director of development and alumni relations, Candler School of Theology, Office of Development and Alumni Relations, 400 Bishops Hall, Atlanta, GA 30322. FAX 404.727.4699. Email candleralum@emory.edu.