Lay Minister for Youth and Young Adults- All Saints' Episcopal Church
Part-time (20 hours/week)
Salary: $21,000.00 per year + pension

All Saints' Episcopal Church is a progressive, Christian congregation in the heart of midtown Atlanta. We profess that the way of abundant life is found in choosing to follow Jesus Christ with all that we are and all that we have. We are seeking a part-time lay minister who is passionate about working with youth and young adults. This person will be engaged in helping youth and young adults to realize their ministry in the Church through an active and mindful faith through community life, scripture, prayer and fun. The lay minister will have special focus on creating small groups and extending our reach into the community by developing ministry opportunities and partnering with offsite programs. The lay minister will work closely with clergy, program staff, diocesan youth workers and parents. Great opportunity for a seminarian or older or just graduated college student.

Preferred Qualifications and Qualities: Baptized Christian, comfortable leading and teaching small and large groups, available weekends, honesty, integrity, team player, college degree, healthy lifestyle, maturity, inclusive of LGBTQ people, willingness to learn, good knowledge of scripture, prefer musician (guitar player or singer), social media skills, loves working with teens and young adults and learning about their development, open to non-Episcopalian candidates who are willing to learn about our way of life and prayer.
