3. Develop relationships with regular volunteers. Recruit volunteers for the new school year in the fall.
4. Regularly encourage students to take the next natural step in their journey of Christian discipleship, including involvement in worship, leadership or in discipleship groups such as Bible Study or small groups.

PROGRAMS: The Summer Intern is to lead Sunday and Wednesday night youth activities, to infuse worship with sincerity, and creativity. They will lead the Bible Studies, scheduled mission trips (e.g. Alabama Rural Ministries), and attend Blue Lake Camp as a volunteer leader if the youth attend camp. They will also assist with any logistical matters such as forms, transportation arrangements, etc., in order to understand fully what being a youth director entails:
1. Meet weekly with the pastor to assure that both the needs of the youth and the needs of the intern are being addressed appropriately. Participate in Sunday worship, Sunday School, and fill in as small group leader, mission trips, and camps, etc.
2. Recruit, lead, equip, organize, and recognize lay persons who are called to serve as volunteers with the Youth Group.
3. Serve as a catalyst for spiritual growth, by example and by articulating your faith both in small group settings and in everyday conversations with youth, parents, and volunteers.
