Seminarian Internship Position
in Campus Ministry
Wesley Foundation at University of Hawaii
Honolulu, Hawaii
Summer 2014

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Hawaii Manoa is accepting applications for a twelve-week summer seminarian intern position. This is a 40-hour per week internship with responsibilities in the areas of weekly student programming, outreach to faculty and staff, directing (planning and implementing) a seven-day urban ministry service project (Concrete Christ Service Project) for high school students, and involvement in the regular activities of the ministry (Board meetings, speaking at churches, etc.). The intern will be expected to meet with the campus minister on a weekly basis.

Qualifications: deep faith, appreciation for ethnic and racial diversity, interest in campus ministry, strong people skills and effective organizational skills, ability to independently direct the Concrete Christ Service Project (i.e. recruit college age/young adult staff, set up programming and site visits, process youth applications, etc.), flexibility, and dependability. United Methodist preferred. The internship dates are from May 19, 2014 to August 15, 2014.

Benefits/Compensation: housing is provided at our Wesley student residence across the street from the University of Hawaii Manoa campus, monthly living stipend of $400, one round trip airfare, end of internship tuition scholarship of $2500, and a great location. We will gladly work with your institution to assist you in earning Field Education credits for the internship.

Applications are currently available. The returned application should include: a biographical information page, one page essay, three letters of recommendation, and a sample learning goals statement (statement of what you aspire to learn during the internship (personal/vocational/spiritual). Deadline to submit application is March 10, 2014.

Dear Field Education Office Staff,

The Wesley Foundation, a United Methodist Campus Ministry at the University of Hawaii, is offering a summer seminarian internship in campus ministry. Enclosed you will find a copy of the position announcement. We would appreciate your assistance in posting the position announcement for students at your institution.

We greatly appreciate your role in publicizing this position. We have discovered that many applicants have initial questions. We have provided some of that information below. Please note that we would prefer it if interested students would contact us directly. Subsequently, we will email copies of the application and reference forms directly to the applicant with our cover letter in order to expedite a timely return of the applications. Please make as many copies of the position announcement as you need for posting.

Our internship announcement states that the deadline for submission of application materials is March 10, 2014. We are flexible with the start and completion dates for the internship realizing that various seminaries finish course terms at different times. We also hope that there is time for the intern to come early or extend their stay for vacation and relaxation. Members of our Board of Director review applications. The summer intern selection committee may want to conduct telephone interviews (March 12-14). Our plan is to select and notify the intern on March 14, 2014.

This summer will be our eleventh summer to offer a summer campus ministry internship program. We are eagerly looking forward to selecting and hosting our next intern. Thank you, again, for your assistance.

Blessings and aloha,

Rev. Dr. Charlene Zuill
Campus Minister
