Brentwood United Methodist Church
Internship in South Africa
Brentwood, Tennessee

Description:
Brentwood United Methodist Church is located in middle Tennessee approximately 15 minutes outside of Nashville. Our disciple-making strategy is to Connect people to God and a faith community, to Prepare people for a life of discipleship, and to Send people to serve in word and deed. This is how we live out our mission - to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Brentwood UMC’s mission is both local and global.

Since 2003, Brentwood UMC has been in a missional relationship with the Methodist Church of Southern Africa. In the subsequent years, ministries have developed, including a sister congregation that was formed in 2007, and then the church was built in 2008. We helped build a pre-school and a primary school and now we sponsor 395 students and 30 teachers across three schools. In 2016, in relationship with Dr. Ray Kumalo Simanga, who is both the founding Pastor of Brentwood Methodist Church, South Africa and former President of Seth Mokitimi Seminary, Brentwood UMC also started working with Seth Mokitimi Seminary, a premier seminary which exists to form leaders for church and nation.

Summer Intern Position
In partnership with Candler School of Theology, and the BUMC South Africa Partner Ministries, we will offer two seminary students a 10-week contextualized, practical learning experience alongside our partners in Howick, Pietermaritzburg, and Merrivale in the Province of KwaZulu-Natal South Africa. Our hope is that this experience will provide the students with various hands-on opportunities which include, ministering in South African congregations that are in ministry with the poor, working in schools that serve students who come from informal settlements, working with a crisis center that cares for children affected by sexual, physical, and emotional violence, and possibly engaging in race and economic initiatives that are administered by Seth Mokitimi Seminary students and faculty. Using theological tools for thinking constructively about Christian missions, the students will draw on their daily experiences to provide case studies of positive endeavors in missions, justice, community, theology and any other themes that they will find pertinent to their learning goals. They will report needs of our partners and give feedback to Brentwood UMC. The students will have opportunities to make connections with relevant FBNGO’s, other relevant organizations and will have access to the academic resources of Seth Mokitimi Seminary.
During the 10 weeks, the students will have access to a vehicle which they will use to travel between the partner organizations and their lodging. The students will travel to South Africa with a team from Brentwood UMC on May 7th. This will mark the beginning of the student’s internship in South Africa. The Brentwood UMC team will return on May 17th, and the students will continue their contextualized learning with the partners through July 16th. At the end of their learning experience, the students will be invited to present their findings to Brentwood UMC, whether in person, or another medium.
