<td>History and Practice of Christian-Muslim Relations This course, which will not be offered again until 2019-2020, will introduce students to the history of Christian-Muslim relations since the early Islamic period and provide opportunities for practicing interfaith dialogue with Muslim communities in Atlanta. Particular attention will also be given to the impact of Christian missionary work in the Islamic world. Using Mona Siddiqui’s acclaimed book Christianity, Muslims, and Jesus, we will encounter Muslim theological perspectives on Christianity and consider Siddiqui’s model for interfaith humility. Guest speakers will shed light on Islam in Atlanta and in multiple global contexts, and on both Fridays our class sessions will be held in local mosques. At the end of the course, students will develop their own approaches to Christian-Muslim engagement through a research project that is due at the end of the summer.</td>
