RESIDENCY

The chaplain residency positions are a yearlong training program for individuals who desire to hone their gifts in the area of pastoral care and counseling. The academic year is from August through August in which students earn three units of CPE (Level I and Level II). Within this program, the chaplain residents are assigned to a clinical area of the hospital that becomes their parish. The chaplain residents are responsible for providing pastoral care and counseling to the patients, their families, and staff of the assigned clinical area/parish. In addition, the chaplain residents participate in the on-call rotation, providing 24-hour coverage for Grady.

Requirements: Master of Divinity degree or equivalent, one unit of CPE and motivation and desire for growth, pastoral development and to learn.
Stipend: $23,660
Application Fee: $60
Tuition: $800 yearly; Make check payable to CCCG

SUPERVISORY EDUCATION STUDENT

Supervisory CPE training is an extensive training program in the art of pastoral supervision. Individuals enrolled in this program receive training in developing and conducting CPE within a healthcare system, group process education and supervision of clergy and lay persons. The training assists students in becoming a certified CPE supervisor within the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education. These positions are for a minimum three to five years which is the typical time it take students to become a certified CPE Supervisor.

Requirements: Master of Divinity degree; ordination; endorsement; a minimum of four units of CPE (2 at level II CPE) and motivation and commitment to becoming a pastoral educator.

CPE LEADERSHIP

Rev. Cora G. Saunders is the Director of Chaplaincy Services and Clinical Pastoral Education program at Grady. She is an Episcopal Priest ordained in the Episcopal Church USA with a Master of Divinity from Candler School of Theology, Emory University.

Cora is a lifelong Episcopalian and serves in the Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta. She is originally from St. Thomas, USVI and now calls Atlanta home. Cora is also an ACPE CPE Supervisor with the Southeast Region of the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education. Cora has served as a prison chaplain, hospice chaplain, and hospital chaplain in many locations in Atlanta.

Cora is excited to be part of Grady and to journey with others, whether they are discerning their call to ministry, deepening their pastoral care skills, or fulfilling the requirements of their ordination process. She agrees with others who have served in this capacity – there is no better place to learn and experience ministry in the real world than at Grady.

For additional information:
Phone: 404-616-4270,
E-Mail: csaunders@gmh.edu

Rev. Cora G. Saunders
Director, Chaplaincy Services & CPE
Grady Health System
80 Jesse Hill Jr. Drive, SE
Atlanta, Georgia 30303-3801

Or visit: The Center for Chaplaincy and CPE, Care and Counseling Center of Georgia www.cccgeorgia.org

CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION

Satellite Program of
The Center for Chaplaincy and Clinical Pastoral Education at Care and Counseling Center of Georgia