STEWARDS OF CHILDREN
Adults protecting children from abuse

Emory University’s Policy 4.119 (http://policies.emory.edu/4.119) Child Abuse Reporting, in accordance with Georgia law, requires all Emory University faculty, staff, volunteers, students and Third-Parties to report suspected child abuse of which they are made aware in their employment or other duties, on or off-campus. Any Emory University faculty, staff, or students who fail to report a case of suspected child abuse is subject to disciplinary action, which could include termination (if a faculty or staff member) or expulsion (if a student.)

In addition, the United Methodist Discipline (2016, ¶341.5) requires clergy of The United Methodist Church—including Student Local Pastors—to report cases of suspected child abuse or neglect, regardless of confessional confidences.

Given these policies, a “reporting tree” for use by Candler student interns has been established:

1. Report suspicions of child abuse immediately to the site mentor and/or an individual designated by the site and articulated through a “Safe Sanctuaries” or other policy regarding the mandatory reporting of suspicions of child abuse. If the site is in Georgia, the site’s designated authority is required to report suspicions within 24 hours with a law enforcement agency or Division of Family and Children Services.

2. Report suspicions of child abuse to the teaching supervisor AND the Director of Contextual Education I (if enrolled in Con Ed I) or Director of Contextual Education II (if enrolled in Con Ed II, Teaching Parish, Contextual Education for Anglican Students, or an internship.)

3. The Directors of Contextual Education I and II, as required by Emory University, will inform the Emory Police Department of this report and will tell the student when the report has been passed to the Emory Police Department.

4. The Emory Police Department will report suspected child abuse to the Division of Family and Children Services in the county where the child lives or where the abuse was witnessed within 24 hours of receiving the report. Reporting to the Emory Police Department satisfies Emory University’s expectation for reporting suspicions of child abuse.

It is Emory’s policy that no faculty, staff, or student member of the Emory Community making a good-faith report of suspected abuse or neglect will be retaliated against in the terms and conditions of employment or educational program.
