L. Wesley de Souza, a Luso-American born in São Paulo, Brazil, is Arthur J.
Moore Associate Professor of Evangelism and Director of the World Methodist Evangelism Institute (WMEI) at Emory University’s Candler School of Theology, and an elder in full connection of the North Georgia Conference of the UMC. His research focios on contextualization of the Gospel, renewal and revitalization of the church, and on Latin-American classical Pentecostalism and Pan-Wesleyan movements. He was a contributor to the following books: Religion as a Social Determinant of Public Sem Propósito (A Church Without Purpose) (2004, published in Spanish and Portuguese), and Global Good News: Mission in a Postmodern Age (2001), as well as a translation into Portuguese of “The Arusha Call to Discipleship,” a document steamed from the World Council of Churches’ Conference on World Mission and Evangelism. He represents Candler on the governing board of the Hispanic Summer Program (HSP), serves on the governing board of the Center for Studies in Global Christianity (CSGC), on the editorial advisory boards for The Asbury Journal, for Simbiótica Magazine and for COGEIME Education Magazine, and as an evaluator of academic articles for Caminhando Magazine.