Precourse Assignments and Course Grading

1. Read Chapter One, “The Local Church” §§201-272, The Book of Discipline. Read Walrath. Using all the questions at the end of chapters 1 & questions 1 & 4 of chapter 3 as well as insights from the text, write a 10-15 page contextual statement identifying and describing your church and the community in which you serve.
   - Include the current state of your church’s administration as prescribed by chapter 1 of the DISCIPLINE.
   - How does your church understand its mission?
   - How is the meaning of membership communicated?
   - Include information about worship attendance and patterns of decision making. Provide demographic data about your community and its relevance to your church.

2. Read Everist, Church Conflict. Take one conflicted situation in the context of your church. Analyze it from the perspective of the Everist’s seven types of conflict. Then, how did you deal with the conflict? Upon reflection, was there another response that would have been more appropriate than the one you used? Which response do you feel most comfortable using? As a minister, which response seems most appropriate? This assignment is usually 3-5 pages.

   Plagiarism Policy
   I have read the plagiarism definition below and verify that this assignment represents my own work, except where credit is given. I have also made copies of this assignment and I will bring them with me to class in the event that any of my work is misplaced.

   Plagiarism Defined
   “You plagiarize when, intentionally or not, you use someone’s words or ideas but fail to credit that person. You plagiarize even when you do credit the author but use his exact words without so indicating with quotation marks or block indentation. You also plagiarize when you use words so close to those in your source, that if your work were placed next to the source, it would be obvious that you could not have written what you did without the source at your elbow. When accused of plagiarism, some writers claim I must have somehow memorized the passage. When I wrote it, I certainly thought it was my own. That excuse convinces very few.” From page 167 of The Craft of Research by Wayne C. Booth, Gregory G. Colomb, and Joseph M. Williams, published in 1995 by The University of Chicago Press in Chicago.
