

Anne Leighton Burkholder
1531 Dickey Drive, Atlanta, GA 30322
404-727-1351
anne.burkholder@emory.edu

Relevant Experience

Candler School of Theology, Emory University Associate Dean of Methodist Studies, Professor in the Practice of Ecclesiology and Church Leadership Atlanta, Georgia	2008-Present
Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church Member of the Cabinet in two different appointments	1999 – 2008
Director of Connectional Ministries Lakeland, Florida
District Superintendent Melbourne, Florida
Duke University Divinity School Assistant Professor and Director of Association for Christian Training and Service, Inc. Durham, North Carolina	1998-1999
Memorial United Methodist Church Senior Pastor Fernandina Beach, Florida	1994-1998
Miami Urban Ministries Executive Director Miami, Florida	1989 -1994

Education and Credentials

Emory University

Atlanta, Georgia

- Ph.D., Graduate School of Arts and Sciences 1992
Primary: Society and Ethics; Secondary: Biblical Studies; Policy Specialty: Human Rights
Dissertation: "Dependence Thought in Latin American Liberation Theology: A Study in the Relationship between the Social Sciences and Theology." Dr. Ted Weber, Advisor
- Master of Divinity, Candler School of Theology 1977

Florida State University

Tallahassee, Florida

- Bachelor of Arts, Creative Arts 1974

Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church

Lakeland, Florida

- Ordained Elder 1985
- Ordained Deacon 1976

Recent Publications

"The Clash Between the Principles of Unity, Inclusion, and Covenant." In Unity of the Church and Human Sexuality: Toward a Faithful United Methodist Witness. (Nashville: General Board of Higher Education and Ministry) 2017.

With Thomas A. Elliott, The Quick and Easy Guide to United Methodist Polity, (Nashville: General Board of Higher Education and Ministry) 2018.

"Igniting Methodists" Personal Blog at www.revanneburkholder.com. Started Fall, 2017.