

Lang Lowrey Bio

The Rev. Canon Dr. Lang Lowrey serves as Canon for Christian Enterprise in the Episcopal Church and Diocese of Atlanta. Rev. Lowrey responsibilities include real property development, financial and leadership consulting. Rev. Lowrey is also Director of Episcopal and Anglican Studies at Candler School of Theology and is a member of the faculty at Emory University. Previously, Rev. Lowrey was President of General Seminary and founding Vicar of St Benedicts Church and School, Chairman of The Episcopal Charities Foundation, trustee of Day One (the old Protestant Hour radio and TV show ) and serves the worldwide Episcopal church as a consultant.

Lang draws on a long career in turnaround management, restructuring, corporate finance, and along with his investment connections, helps organizations transform and grow organizations. He previously owned and ran several successful ventures before selling them to create Buckhead Technology Angels to incubate emerging technology companies and was co- founding Partner of Renova, LLC and Verta, LLC a bank restructuring and investment banking firm. Rev. Lowrey twice was selected to serve as Chairman and CEO of two Fortune 500 firms facing difficult challenges, implementing complex turnaround plans and securing robust equity events

Lang is an alum of Georgia Tech, Ga State and Emory University and did spiritual direction at St. Michaels and All Angels under Emmet Jarret.