January-Term Mini Session Courses (Meet Monday, January 4-Friday, January 8, 2027 (5 days))

J-Term enrollment ends December 9, 2026

January mini session ("J-Term") courses are considered part of your Spring schedule for financial aid and academic purposes (such as full-time status). J-Term courses do have distinct add, drop, and withdrawal deadlines from the Spring semester. Courses may require pre-work that is distributed in advance of the course. Courses that do not meet all contact time during J-Term may have more significant pre or post J-Term instructor-led asynchronous contact hours. Courses with a Part A in J-Term will have a Part B in regular session. Typically at least a final paper, project, or exam is due after the end of J-Term but before the end of the regular session. Enrollment in only one class per J-Term is allowed unless otherwise specified.

PC 637 1	New Genealogies of Spiritual Care: Exploring Du Boisian Spiritual Care (ON CAMPUS hybrid: meets on campus in person on Thursdays 2:30-4:30pm; remaining contact time fulfilled via asynchronous online engagement) (This course delves into a new genealogy of spiritual care that commenced, not with Anton Boisen (1876–1965) founder of Clinical Pastoral Education, but with W. E. B. Du Bois (1868– 1963), who was a pioneer of Public Health, Sociology, & a more liberative method of care. While Boisen's work has been critiqued for focusing solely on the individual, Du Bois was focusing on public health (which includes education, poverty in the U.S., community health, & spiritual well-being), as well as our connection to the global community. We explore Du Bois's liberatory work through a decolonial lens of spiritual care. We also look at the practices & theories of care (since Du Bois) of Womanist and feminist (Asian/American, Latin/x, & White) scholar-activists.)	5339	3	Emmanuel Lartey and Hellena Moon	Th 2:30pm-4:30pm	RARB 549	86-hr MDiv: Elective 72-hr MDiv: Practical Theology 600-Level (PC) MARL: Practical Theology MTS: MRTE MRPL: Beliefs, Attitudes, and Practices of Christians Common Requirement	Chaplaincy
